

ACCESSABILITY AND PARKING

NEDERLANDS FOTOMUSEUM

FACTSHEET_SEPT.2010

How to get there by public transport

The Nederlands Fotomuseum can be reached from the Rotterdam Central Station by taking tram 20 (direction of Lombardijen), 23 (direction of Beverwaard), 25 (direction of Carnisselande) or the subway line D (direction of Slinge or de Akkers), getting off at Wilhelminaplein. At the Wilhelminaplein subway station take the exit 'Luxor Theater - Wilhelminakade'.

By car from Utrecht, Gouda and Den Haag

- A16 in the direction of Dordrecht, keep to the right-hand lane
- Before the Brienoord bridge take exit 25 Capelle a/d IJssel and follow the signs to 'Centrum'. Turn right at the roundabout, keeping the Shell petrol station on your right.
- Follow this dual carriageway along the Maas River for about 2.5 km and then turn left across the Erasmus Bridge.
- Turn right immediately after the Erasmus Bridge.

By car from Dordrecht

Parking

Parking facilities can be found in the immediate vicinity of the museum, but payment can only be made with Chip Card or Credit Card. Cash payment is accepted at the multi-storey carpark World Port Center (P3) which is open from 6:30 to 23:30.

Free parking

At subway station Slinge (3086 EZ) there is a supervised P+R area where you can park for free for the first 24 hours. It is open 24 hours a day and has place for 840 cars. From the subway station there is an D-line train (direction of Central Station) every five minutes which takes you directly, and within the same public transport zone, to the Wilhelminaplein station. Take the exit 'Luxor Theater – Wilhelminakade'. Travelling time from the subway station Slinge to the door of the museum is less than fifteen minutes.
